

NATIONAL MUTUAL BUILDING

Church Square, Cape Town, Western Cape

Project Description

Substantial restoration, demolition of an existing building and construction of a new seven storey building, linked to this heritage building, to accommodate the Iziko Social History Centre. The building has an ornately carved Paarl grey granite facade which was restored by the company as part of the project. The refurbished building now houses the most state of the art archives on the African continent as well as offices, storage and research facilities.
